

Moths in Boblainy Forest 21 June 2013

Barred Red
Barred Umber
Bordered White
Brimstone Moth
Broken-barred Carpet
Brown Rustic
Clouded Border
Clouded-bordered Brindle
Common Carpet
Common Lutestring
Common White Wave
Dark Brocade
Flame Shoulder
Green Carpet
Grey Pine Carpet (an abundant moth in conifer woods)
Grey Pug
Incurvia mascuella (a Micro moth)
May Highflyer
Nut-tree Tussock
Pale Prominent
Pale-shouldered Brocade
Peacock
Pebble Hook-tip
Peppered Moth
Poplar Hawk Moth
Purple Bar
Scalloped Hazel
Scalloped Hook-tip
Small Angle Shades
Small Phoenix
Tawny-barred Angle
True Lovers Knot
Welsh Wave

Total species - 33

Brought over by Tom but all have been caught in this area

Coxcomb Prominent
Lunar Thorn
Lesser Swallow Prominent
Peach Blossom
Pebble Prominent
Saxon (I caught one 2 days earlier at Ardendrain)
Setaceous Hebrew Character

Total species - 7

Grand Total species - 40